Yesterday's Police Court.

In the police court yesterday Charles Hill and Walter Young, who were engaged in the family row and shooting scrape on Seventeenth street the day before, were fined $10 and costs each, which they paid, and J. W. Miller, also charged with disorderly conduct, paid the same fine.

Died from Her Injuries.

The wife of Michael Calahan, who was horribly beaten up about two months ago by her husband, died yesterday at the county infirmary. Calahan has been languishing in jail since January 26, under a charge of felonious assault with intent to kill.

He was Badly Hurt.

D. B. Kirk, of West Wheeling, an employe of Hallock Bros., the contractors, was badly injured Tuesday at the new water works pumping station by being knocked down by a heavy timber. At first he was not thought to be seriously injured, but his condition yesterday afternoon was worse.

Post Office Positions.

A civil service examination will be held at the postoffice April 4, of applicants for positions in the Wheeling postoffice. The examination will be in three grades, comprising applicants for positions as clerks, letter carriers and messengers. Formal applications must be made, and the blanks for these applications will be furnished by Postmaster Cowden in a few days.

A Fine Big Building.

The plans for the six-story building for F. H. Lange have been completed by M. F. Giesey, architect, and the contract for stone work has been let to T. W. Jackson. The building will be built in the space now occupied by the stores rooms of Reed, Robb & Breiding and A. P. Franzell. The new building will be of pressed brick with terra cotta trimmings. It will be occupied by Hicks & Hoge. The work will begin at once.

A New Social Club.

Yesterday a certificate of incorporation was issued by County Clerk Hook to an association to be known as the "Bairisch-Wittelsbach Maximilian Verein," which is granted the privilege of acquiring and holding real estate to the value of $10,000 and personal property to the value of $5,000. The incorporators are Jacob Korn, Michael Kirchner, Frank Striff, George W. Grub, Jacob Wilhelm and Anton Schreiner.

The objects are social, and the name is not as formidable as it looks, simply being that of the province in Bavaria whence these gentlemen came and the name of its duke, Maximilian, added.

A South Side Blaze.

Last evening about 7 o'clock an alarm turned in at box 6, called the fire department to a blaze at the warehouse of the Pabst Brewing Company, at Thirty-third and Chapline streets, South Side. A quantity of straw used for packing, had through some unknown cause become ignited, and started what looked for awhile like a big blaze, but the straw was thrown out of the building, where the blaze was soon extinguished without much loss. The Eighth ward company's line of hose burst while playing on the blaze.

In Squire Arkle's Court.

Charles Hill was fined $25 and costs yesterday by Squire Arkle for carrying a hand bill.

As soon as Walter Young, who lodged the complaint, left the room, a counter complaint was filed by Hill, charging him with carrying a revolver. He was brought back and also fined $25 and costs.

Captain Asa Booth was assessed $5 and costs on a charge of assault and battery preferred by William Lowe, colored.

The hearing of B. Valentine, who was brought here from Chicago yesterday on a charge of swindling the proprietors of the McClure House some time ago, will take place this afternoon at the new jail, at 2 o'clock.

He Wants a Fight.

Paddy Griffith, the Australian pugilist, is still in Wheeling, and still hopes to arrange a contest of some kind. He authorizes the INTELLIGENCER to say that he will fight anybody at 155 pounds, give or take two pounds, for $500 a side, twenty or thirty rounds. He would prefer to meet Howley, but will fight the winner of the Howley-Crozier match Friday night, or anybody else, "first come first served." Griffith is evidently in earnest, and he would make a scientific contest. He can be found at John G. Kline's Saturday night from 9 to 10 p. m., and will find all the backing anybody wants to cover. If he does not get a fight here by Saturday night he will leave Wheeling.

The Modern Way.

Commends itself to the well-formed, to do pleasantly and effectually what was formerly done in the crudest manner and disagreeably as well. To cleanse the system and break up colds, headaches and fevers without unpleasant after-effects, use the delightful liquid laxative remedy, Syrup of Figs.
